

2024 PRIVATE BARREL PROGRAM

YOUR GUIDE TO FINDING A ONE-OF-A-KIND WHISKEY

LDI

Lanterna
DISTRIBUTORS INC

THERE IS NO OTHER WHISKEY LIKE YOURS

It's not every day that you get the chance to be part of designing a whiskey recipe and hand crafting your own barrel of whiskey. Your barrel will be dated and stamped with your name. The end result, your bottles of whiskey, will be sourced directly from your barrel and will carry your own signature label – so there's no other whiskey like yours.

BENEFITS

Unique & Exclusive: The most significant benefit of the private barrel program is the opportunity to own a unique and exclusive whiskey that you've personally selected. This whiskey won't be available to most of the general public, making it a special addition to your offerings or collection.

Customization: Our private barrel program allows you to customize various aspects of the whiskey, such as proof, aging period, and packaging. This customization enables you to tailor the product to your specific preferences or brand identity.

Branding Opportunities: Private barrel selections are a great branding tool. The whiskey can often be labeled with the establishment's name, logo, or a custom design, creating a signature product that reflects the identity of your business.

Memorable Experience: Participating in a private barrel selection is a memorable and unique experience. It often involves a visit to the distillery, where you can sample and select your whiskey. It's fun and educational for everyone involved in the selection process.

Limited Availability: Private barrel selections are typically produced in very limited quantities, often just one barrel. This limited availability can make the whiskey more sought after and collectible.

Potential Investment: Depending on the quality of the whiskey and its reputation, some private barrel selections can appreciate over time as collectors view these bottles as potential assets.

Supporting Local Distilleries: Private barrel programs often support small craft distilleries, helping them to thrive and produce unique products. It's a great way to contribute to the growth of local businesses as well as the craft spirits industry.

Profit Potential: A private barrel selection can potentially yield a higher profit margin as customers may be willing to pay a premium for an exclusive product.

FAR NORTH SPIRITS

HALLOCK, MINNESOTA

Michael Swanson, Founder & 4th Generation Farmer
Cheri Reese, Co-founder, Sales & Marketing

Located in Hallock, Minnesota (population 981), Far North Spirits is the northernmost distillery in the contiguous United States. Located 25 miles from the Canadian border, this small craft distillery is making a serious name for itself in the sustainable farming, distillation and aging of single varietal whiskey.

The great wines of the world are inextricably tied to the variety of the grapes from which they are made. However, for whiskeys, which are fermented and distilled from grains, that varietal information and the tie to the agriculture behind it is often severed. Grain is the foundation upon which all whiskey is built. Far North produces exceptional whiskey because it's made from exceptional, estate-grown varieties of grain and heirloom corn. Like their estate winery counterparts, Far North's focus on varietals results in complex and distinct flavors in the finished spirit.

Maintaining over 50 acres of pollinator habitat and implementing pollinator best management practices, Far North Spirits is the only distillery in the country to be certified by the Pollinator Partnership as a Bee Friendly Farm.

ESPY HOUSE SPIRITS

BEDFORD, PENNSYLVANIA

Todd Eichelberger, Founder & Owner

The Espy House, built of stone in 1771, is a national historic landmark and was a hot spot of activity in Pennsylvania during the American revolution. In 1794, President George Washington used the house as his base of operations to help calm a local uprising during the whiskey rebellion of 1794.

In 1794, congress repealed a tax on distilled spirits, but replaced it with a new one causing the onset of what was later known as the “whiskey rebellion.” The locals in western Pennsylvania were unceremoniously informed that the new tax would be collected, by force if necessary. They felt the tax was unfair and organized the first rebellion against the new United States government. George Washington mobilized 12,950 troops from eastern Pennsylvania, Virginia, Maryland, and New Jersey under General Harry Lee, with the intent on quelling the rebellion and asserting the government’s authority to make laws and enforce them. The rebellion ended with only minor confrontation and no loss of life.

When you take a sip of Espy House Bourbon, you’re taking a journey that started over 250 years ago at a time when our country was just being formed. The American Revolution was in full-swing and the new American government was testing their new laws. The Espy House was at the center of it all.

DAD'S HAT

BRISTOL, PENNSYLVANIA

John S Cooper, Co-Founder
Herman Mihalich, Founder & Distiller

Starting from scratch is the only way to make genuine small batch rye. With that and the memories of proud, whiskey-loving father figures in mind, two friends set out to do just that.

Herman Mihalich and John S. Copper founded Dad's Hat Rye because they wanted to do it the right way. To take up a tradition and make something that mattered — by hand, in small batches, using only natural, local ingredients and the most careful methods. Dad's Hat is made in Pennsylvania — the birthplace of genuine rye whiskey — in honor of Mihalich's father, who enjoyed rye whiskey and served it at the family's tavern, and of that wonderful, optimistic time in America's history when we made a lot of things and took great care to make them well. Their hearts tell them that many of us are searching for that spirit again.

Dad's Hat Rye reflects that same simple, uniquely American personality better than any other whiskey. This is how a Pennsylvania rye is supposed to taste - herbs, sweetness, and spice. Crisp. Smooth. Delicious — not lingering or heavy-handed in its finish. Perfect for every occasion. After tasting Dad's Hat, we hope that you feel the same way.

DAD'S HAT RYE

BONDED RYE

This is a whiskey of integrity that should be tasted in its full, bond-certified glory. A blend of five specifically selected barrels, distilled in the same season, were used to blend this spirit, resulting in deep, rich, concentrated flavor. After maturing in these barrels for 5 years, the emerging whiskey is a classic Pre-Prohibition Pennsylvania Bottled in Bond.

STRAIGHT RYE

The first Straight Rye made in Pennsylvania in over 25 years, this delicious whiskey is distilled farm-to-bottle in Pennsylvania with locally harvested grain and aged for a minimum of four years. The classic Pre-Prohibition flavor profile is the result of time-tested distilling methods and painstaking attention to detail.

PORT FINISH RYE

Rich port wine flavor meets genuine rye spice as we add another unique double finish rye to the ranks with our Port Wine Finish Rye. This rye is double finished for an additional three months in separate barrels which previously contained port wine, made with red grapes and known for a fruity, pleasant sweetness.

VERMOUTH FINISH RYE

For this modern classic Vermouth Finish Rye, we've selected casks previously inhabited by Quady Winery's Vya Sweet Vermouth to create an amazing double finish rye. The process takes our classic rye, already matured for at least six months, and ages for an additional three months in select vermouth barrels. The warm, balanced flavor of American vermouth coupled with our smooth, spicy rye delivers an exceptional nose with a distinctive taste and character all its own.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How long does the order/production process take?

All orders will be executed on a “First Come First Served” basis. The amount of time required to produce a barrel of whiskey will vary by distillery. Due to the small batch, craft and size of the gems in our spirits portfolio, it is on a case-by-case basis.

Can I be there when my whiskey is being bottled?

Yes! We can make arrangements for you to visit the distillery depending on your specific situation. During part or the whole production period, we will directly involve you in the status and processing of your barrel. A detailed production schedule will be provided upon signing the contract. If for whatever reason you cannot be there during the production period, we will make sure to take pictures/video of the entire process and send them to you.

Can I personalize the bottles of whiskey from my barrel?

Yes, but some restrictions apply. If there is a need for a different presentation, a different label or bottle then additional expenses may apply. We have shifted to different options per customer in the past with no problems.

Are other types of spirits available in the private barrel program?

While bourbon and rye whiskey are the most requested products for our private barrel program, other types of spirits such as tequila, mezcal, rum, gin, or vodka, might also be available depending on the manufacturer's inventory. We can certainly explore the options of these selections if desired. Personalization is a huge benefit to the modern-day consumer, so the more opportunity you have to do this, the better. It's a great opportunity to build brand partnerships, foster unique marketing avenues, and reinforce the message that your customers will always find something special at your store, bar or restaurant.
